THE HUFF CASE IS NOW ON

Alleged Slayer of His Wife
Faces a Jury

WILL BE WELL DEFENDED.

Tony Partridge Acquitted of Charge of Selling to Minors—Grand Jury Ignores the Bill in Which Harry Coulter Was Charged With Causing Fire to Spread to Neighbor's Lands.

The case against Henry Hilliard, charged with having robbed the son of a miner at Clover Run of about $35, which the lad was taking to his home, occupied the time of the court Wednesday afternoon and this morning. The jury retired after dinner time. Hilliard was accused of having knocked the boy down and robbing him on the highway.

A verdict of not guilty was rendered in the Hilliard case this afternoon.

The jury in the case of the commonwealth vs. Tony Partridge, charged with selling liquor to minors, returned a verdict of not guilty.

The grand jury ignored the bill in the case of the commonwealth against Harry Coulter, charged with maliciously permitting fire from his home in Girard township to spread to the farm of James Leonard, a neighbor. It was expected that this case would be tried, as it was the desire of the state forestry commission to have a court ruling on the issue of this character.

The Huff case was taken up this afternoon, the rest of the afternoon session being taken up with the selection of a jury. Huff is charged with killing his wife at Penfield, leaving the woman at the home of Lelloy Smith, where she was employed.

The commonwealth is represented in this case by District Attorney Kelley, and Attorneys Cole and Gleason. Huff will be defended by Attorneys Lawright and Woodward. A large number of witnesses from Penfield and other towns along the LowGrade railroad are here to testify.

At this writing only one juror had been accepted.

HOSPITAL NEWS

John Triebly, an engineer on the New York Central, fell from his engine in the yards in this place Tuesday afternoon and received severe injuries to his head. He was taken to the Hospital, where he is getting along very well.

James Snyder, of Curwensville who was in the hospital suffering from blood poison, died at 1:30 o'clock this morning. He was aged 43 years and was a single man.

Lewis Greaves died at the hospital last night of cancer. He was 58 years old and unmarried. Mr. Greaves was a traveling mechanic, a repairer of intricate and delicate machines, and was a resident of Lock Haven, but had been on a visit to Clearfield, when he was taken ill and was removed to the hospital. Lock Haven friends have taken charge of the body and will ship it to that town.

C. H. S. News.

The Junior class will hold a class party this evening at the High school building.

The Literary society of C. H. S. will render a literary program to-morrow afternoon.

Paroles Recommended.

Among the paroles recommended to the board of pardons by the inspectors of the Western penitentiary are the following: Genaro Mezzanoti, Jefferson county, murder second degree; Harry Schaeffer, Indiana; murder second degree; Mike Boluski, Indiana manslaughter.

Have you seen the new case of Bath Room fixtures at William Powell's Hardware store.

Serviceable Manicure Sets, Safety Razors, Pocket Knives, Scissors, etc., Chaffing Dishes, Electric Irons and Percolators have just been received at William Powell's Store on Second street, Dec. 11.

ANOTHER CHILD BITTEN

Quarantine Cannot be Established Too Quickly Here.

On Monday another child was bitten by a dog, but whether the dog was mad or not has not been ascertained. A child in Alonzo Baumgartner's family on the West Side was attacked by a dog and the little one's eye was badly lacerated.

Earl Gearhart states that this paper was misinformed when it reported that he was opposed to the killing of his dog, which bit him and his little son, and that Mr. Gearhart does not believe that such a disease as rabies exists. Mr. Gearhart says he has been under the care of a physician ever since he was bitten, and that the wounds of both himself and his son have been properly treated.

COMMENDABLE ACTION

Landlord Casey Cares For Family of Daniel River.

Since the unfortunate affair in his hotel by which Daniel River lost his life, Landlord Tom Casey has proven himself worthy of commendation. Mr. Casey has practically taken charge of the River family, providing them with money and other necessities of life.

Mr. Casey has assured Mrs. River that he will not permit her to suffer as a result of the accident, in which her husband met his death, and those who know Mr. Casey feel confident that he will make his words good, although the River family have no legal claim upon him.

INCREASING CAPACITY

Big Boiler Being Placed in the Steam Plant.

A number of employees of the Keeler Boiler company, of Williamsport, have been at work for some time placing in position a new boiler at the steam plant in Clearfield. This boiler is of 500 horse power and when in operation will greatly increase the power of the steam plant. A smoke stack 100 feet high and five feet in diameter will be erected in connection with this big boiler and is expected that the new boiler will be in position by the first of the coming year.

INDIANA Y. M. C. A.

New $50,000 Building Dedicated This Afternoon.

The new $50,000 building of the Indiana, Pa. Y. M. C. A. was dedicated this afternoon. Russell H. Conwell, the noted preacher and orator, was the chief figure at the ceremonies. Tuesday evening the building was open for inspection of charter members and Wednesday evening the general public was admitted. Wednesday evening the new secretary, H. F. Beck, late of the Clearfield Y. M. C. A. was installed and given a reception at which the directors acted as ushers.

RECEIVED A PORKER

Prothonotary Moore Just Falls Into Good Luck.

Wednesday Prothonotary John H. Moore received from a friend in Virginia a porker, a nice fat porker, butchered and all ready for roast, boiling or any other kind of cooking.

Mr. Moore was greatly pleased over this munificent gift, especially as Christmas is fast approaching and neither he nor Clerk Ralston secured any venison this year. But the genial prothonotary was still further convinced that blessings do not always come singly when he opened the hog's carcass and discovered two big rolls of rich, yellow butter safely deposited in its interior department.

A Beautiful Play of Modern Times.

"A Girl of the Underworld" which plays at the opera house Friday night is without doubt the greatest show of its kind ever written. If you want an evening of realistic pleasure see this show. Laughter and tears are but a few minutes apart. As Shakespeare said: "A man who might laugh with sadness is a deed happy." This play in all respects is a show of modern times. It tells a beautiful story which really happened. In fact each incident depicted in this piece was taken from real life. Taking it all in all "A Girl of the Underworld" is a two dollar show now playing at popular prices and it would be advisable to secure your tickets in advance as from present indications, standing room will be at a premium. Seats now selling.

FIND NEW CLEWS TO MISSING GIRL

Coney Island Searched From One End to Other.

NURSE AIDS DETECTIVES.

Tells of Talking to Girl Answering Description of Heiress—Clothes Tally With Those Worn by Miss McCann—Detectives Confident That Search Will Not Be In Vain.

New York, Dec. 11.—With new clues developing almost every hour, Detectives Brierton and States and their aids—officials and otherwise—felt confident that they would be able to restore the missing Jessie McCann to her anxious family. The search lay along the Coney Island-Brighton Beach coast between Sea Gate and the Manhattan Beach hotel.

The detectives were confident now that the woman who approached Miss Lauretta Dore, nurse for Mrs. Praeger, wife of the Shelbourne hotel manager at Ocean Parkway and the Concourse, last Thursday afternoon was Miss McCann. They also felt confident that the object of their search also talked with the matron in charge of the Brighton Beach comfort station for women on Friday.

The nurse repeated her story in detail to the detectives, and a comparison showed that the description of the girl who accosted her on the street tallied exactly with that which the McCanns have furnished of their missing daughter.

"I was pushing the baby carriage along the Concourse when the girl hailed me from behind," said the nurse. "She crossed over from the other side of the street and somewhat excitedly informed me that a strange man was following her. She asked if she might walk with me until the man had left the vicinity. I told her she might, of course. She pointed the man out to me. He was well dressed, wore sideburns and appeared to be about forty years of age. He was then standing on the opposite side of the street. 'After a bit he sauntered on down the street, but the girl continued to walk with me. She told me that she was afflicted with a nervous disorder and that the man had frightened her. After a bit she confided to me that she had only 30 cents left. She went away without revealing her identity.'"

The nurse remembered that the girl who accosted her wore two plumes in her hat, one black and the other orange colored. Mrs. McCann said that her daughter had such a hat adornment when she left home.

NEXT BIG FIGHT MAY OCCUR AT OJINAGA

Mexican Federals Await Villa's Forces at That Place.

Juarez, Mex., Dec. 11.—Events indicated that Ojinaga, sometimes called Presidio del Norte, the small Mexican village on the border opposite Presidio, Tex., would be the scene of the next important move in the Mexican revolution. Rebel leaders were more than ever convinced that Ojinaga, where the federal troops have concentrated, cannot be ignored by General Francisco Villa. Within the town are practically all the federal troops of the north, with most of their important generals. Their retreat thither avowedly was to obtain money and provisions because in the interior they had been without pay and were on the verge of famine. Reprovisioned and provided with money, the federals would be in a position to renew hostilities.

Should he determine to attack the federals in force General Villa, now at Chihuahua city, would have to check temporarily his advance southward toward Torreon, but it would be in line with his plan to leave only rebel territory behind him in his southward march. The rebel forces about Ojinaga are greatly in excess of the number at first reported. It is said that the 3,000 troops which Villa sent south of Juarez, about ten days ago, have turned eastward, and are now on the road to Ojinaga.

A mutiny of the federals is relied upon by the rebels, as was shown by their calling across the river to the American side that they would desert if attacked.

The Cause.

"Why the divorce? Couldn't he support her in the style to which she was accustomed?"

"Yes, but then she wanted something altogether better than that."—Washington Herald.

ELECTED OFFICERS

No. 1 Fire Company Chooses Heads of Departments.

Wednesday evening the members of No. 1 fire company met in their rooms and proceeded to the election of officers for the ensuing year, with the following result:

Foreman—A. P. Spangler.
First Assistant Foreman—J. B. Smith.

Second Assistant Foreman—W. J. Sackett.

Secretary—F. B. Smith.

Treasurer—Walter Welch.

Marshal—O. G. Fontenay.

Steward—W. Banks Holmes.

This makes the thirty-first time Mr. Holmes has been chosen steward of this company, and his election last night was made by a rising vote. Banks feels highly honored by being made the steward of such a lively and efficient set of fire fighters as are found in old No. 1.

Other elections:

Board of Directors—J. M. Urey, W. E. Welch and Ward Logan.

Representatives to Department—E. W. Hess, George Kittleberger, W. J. Sackett and William Thorne.

Representative to relief association—Gus Kupper, L. C. Meise, and Ward Logan.

After the election the members repaired to the hall, where they partook of a sumptuous feast prepared by J. F. Smith. The firemen enjoyed the good things on the table and the flow of wit and humor, which were interspersed with the meal.

AT U. B. CHURCH

Last Night's Service Was of Great Interest.

The service at the U. B. church last night was one of great interest. Rev. College preached a fine sermon on the subject "Hounds and other dogs." He likened the Christian being hounded by Satan's workers, to the reindeer as they were hounded years ago by dogs—their great refuge the water, our great refuge, the arms of God.

The subject for tonight is, "Like the world—Like God" or the two like nesses. Come out and hear Rev. College, only two more nights as Friday night will be the last service. The subject for Friday night will be "The Feast of Belshazzar" or the Hand Writing on the Wall.

Christmas Stories.

There are two good Christmas stories in next Sunday's Philadelphia Press. One is by Roy Norton, entitled "And by These Deeds" and another is by Abbie F. Brown, called "An Unheralded Tradition." Besides these stories there is another of Herbert Kaufman's advertising tales, "The Pride of the Tuxedos," a classic in commercial fiction. These are a few of next Sunday's features.

Lightning Cures.

Some have had physical reasons to rejoice that they had been struck by lightning. De Quatrefages mentions the case of a telegraph employee at Strassburg who was struck senseless and remained paralyzed until the next day, but thereafter enjoyed better health than ever before. In Martinique a M. Ronde was deprived by lightning of the use of his limbs for three hours, but, having previously been a man of weak health, was much stronger from that time on. Several authors refer to cases in which rheumatism was cured by lightning. And in this respect also trees seem to be as men. Arago saw a poplar, one of an avenue of 1,500 near Tours, which, having been struck, developed such vigor that its trunk soon far surpassed in dimensions those of all its neighbors.

Why the Cook Left.

There was a dead silence in the kitchen, and the mistress felt that the work was not progressing as it should. She walked quietly along the passage and found the cook reading a novelette. "Why are you wasting your time like this? What is this rubbish that keeps you from your work?" demanded the mistress. Her eyes fell on the title of the novelette. It was called "Married to the Master."—Manchester Guardian

A Wicked Prisoner.

A perfectly formed hard shell crab about the size of the end of a person's thumb was found in an oyster shell. The crab had evidently been swallowed by the oyster, but presumably the crab proved too much for the oyster, as there was no oyster in the shell when it was opened.

It is time to be thinking about those Xmas photos. Have the McDevot Studio make them for you. Nov. 21—24.

WHITMAN AFTER MEN HIGHER UP

New Indictments In Graft Cases Expected at Any Time.

HIGH OFFICIAL SUSPECTED

District Attorney Insists on Prompt Action in John Doe Proceedings. Contractor Was Expected to Appear Before Grand Jury and Repeat Story That He Paid "Men of Influence."

New York, Dec. 11.—Determined on prompt action, District Attorney Whitman sought from the grand jury indictments based on the sensational testimony given at the John Doe proceedings before Chief Magistrate McAdoo. It was intimated that an official high in the Democratic party will be indicted.

John M. Murphy, a Bronx contractor, who is not related to Charles F. Murphy, leader of the Democratic party in this city, expected to be called to repeat to the grand jury the statement he made in the John Doe proceedings that he paid James E. Gaffney and the late Joseph D. Carroll, two powers in the Democratic party, $3,000 each because they were "men of influence."

Mr. Murphy said he entered into an oral partnership with Mr. Gaffney and Mr. Carroll and that they never did anything that he could recollect for the firm, but that he expected they would "help him" with C. Gordon Reel, formerly state superintendent of highways.

The Hassett Case.

Before Mr. Whitman laid this and other matters before the grand jury he concluded his case against Thomas Hassett, to whom a Poughkeepsie contractor said he paid $1,500 in cash for expediting the approval of a claim of his against the state for contract work. Immediately after the Hassett case the name of George M. Palmer, chairman of the Democratic state committee, was brought to the attention of the grand jury.

BEILIS' ACQUITTAL STANDS.

Time Limit For Appeal From Verdict Has Expired.

Kiev, Russia, Dec. 11.—The time limit expired for an appeal against the verdict of acquittal in the recent sensational trial of Mendel Beilis, who was charged with murdering the boy Andrew Yashinsky for purposes of "blood ritual."

The law allows a period of fifteen days in which to appeal after the promulgation of the verdict, and as the public prosecutor did not take advantage of this the judgment became absolute automatically.

People Oppose Ferdinand.

Sofia, Dec. 11.—Revised returns of the general election in Bulgaria show that the government has been defeated, winning only 95 seats to 109 for the opposition.

He Knew the Moment.

The last time Augustus Thomas, the playwright, went to a dinner of the Hoboken Chowder club noted for its hospitality more than its views on national questions, he was assigned to the rear of the speakers' list to "bring up the retreat from Moscow," as he put it. One of the speakers made a stab at politics, and the chairman turned to Thomas.

"I'm going to call on you next," he whispered hoarsely. "Don't do it," begged Thomas. "I will," insisted the chairman. "It is the proper zoological moment!"—New York Tribune.

DEATHS OF A DAY.

Peter K. Wilson, eighty-nine, for almost fifty years engaged in the lace importing business in New York, is dead.

Frank S. Crane, who for twenty years had been a member of the Springfield (Mass.) assessors, is dead.

Arthur M. Wilson, president of the New England Grocers' association for the past ten years, died at Wilson's Station, Conn.

John Russell, president of the George W. Russell company, building contractors, died at New York. He was eighty-two years old.

Henry Clinton Atwood, president of the Williamsville Manufacturing company, cotton manufacturers, died in Danielson, Conn., aged fifty-seven.

Dr. Henry Wishard, the oldest physician in Indianapolis, is dead, aged ninety-seven. Dr. Wishard served throughout the civil war as a volunteer surgeon.

Burt W. Gifford, seventy-six, clerk of the town of Watertown for forty years, is dead, aged seventy-six. He succeeded his father, who was town clerk for twenty years.

Mrs. Caroline Palmer Farnsworth, eighty-seven, died in Glen Ridge, N. J. Mrs. Farnsworth spent fifty years in Turkey as a missionary, working under the American-Congregational board of foreign missions. Professor Charles F. Farnsworth of Columbia is her son.

STATE GRANGE

Proceedings of Interest at the Reading Meetings.

Reading, Dec. 11.—At Wednesday morning's session, resolutions and reports were presented. At 1:30 P. M. addresses were made by the visitors and routine matters transacted. The exemplification of the NRD degree will take place at 7:30. At 8:30 o'clock the sixth degree will be conferred on the candidates.

The reports of the special committees and the memorial services for deceased members took up the entire morning session today. A special order for biennial election was held this afternoon. Several members were named for vacancies in the executive committee. They will be elected for three years. The election of officers will not be held this year. This evening the reports of sellers and the receiving of reports from the committees will occupy the time.

The completion of official business and the closing of the convention will be held Friday at 9 A. M., when nearly all of the 2000 visitors will be assembled.

A feature of the convention is the fact that half of the visitors are women. Some have accompanied their husbands here as spectators and others have been appointed delegates, the ruling of the grange allowing women to serve in that capacity.

BIRD SLAUGHTER

Strict Enforcement of the Law is Demanded.

The horrors of vivisection and the cruelty of the ruthless slaughter of birds and game animals, were vividly portrayed in Washington Monday, by speakers at the opening sessions of the annual convention of the International Anti-Vivisection and Animal Protection society. Speakers declared that vivisection as now practiced even in the most advanced laboratories of rich philanthropic institutions is a "blot on twentieth century civilization." Special mention was made of the proceedings brought by members of the anti-vivisection society of Philadelphia. Secretary of State Bryan, Senators Gallinger and Myers, and prominent leaders of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and the Audubon society were scheduled to speak during the three days convention. It was announced today that resolutions will be put through demanding federal legislation prohibiting vivisection and making game laws more strict.

POOR TRAIN SERVICE ON IRVONA BRANCH

Almost Three Hours Required to Travel 35 Miles.

Up to this time the New York Central railroad has not improved its passenger service on the Clearfield and Southern branch, although requested to do so by the State Public Utilities commission. The residents of this county who are forced to travel over the line between here and Irvona are somewhat wroth over the fact that they are put to great inconvenience when they wish to transact business at the county seat, while Clearfield citizens find it a difficult matter to reach Irvona and vicinity under the present schedule of trains.

To give the public some idea of what a trip to Irvona from Clearfield involves we give the following facts: The train which leaves Clearfield at 1:50 in the afternoon reaches Irvona at 7:19, thus requiring almost three hours to travel less than 35 miles. The return trip cannot be made in one day. The only service is a mixed train, hauling freight and passengers the accommodation car being lighted with kerosene lamps as in the days of early railroading.

The county officials and the public in general find the service between the two points inadequate and efforts will be made to have this discrimination against both the county seat and Irvona corrected by the Public Utilities commission. It is alleged that there is sufficient passenger traffic between the two points to warrant the New York Central in placing a regular passenger train on the line with a schedule which will permit travelers to reach their destination within a reasonable time.

COMING EVENTS.

County Institute, Dec. 15-19.
Reception to new secretary of Y. M. C. A. Dec. 9, at 8 P. M.

Good evening! Don't expect too much on Christmas morning; the high cost of living has cut out many of the frills of that glad season.

PURE BLUFF.

Statements of the mouthpieces of the old political parties that the Progressive party is falling to pieces have no other effect upon the rank and file of that party than to cause them to stand more firmly by the principles which rallied to their support four million voters in the 1912 campaign. These statements are founded on falsehood and nobody knows this better than do the gangsters who are seeking to convince the people that the third party is disintegrating.

It needs but a brief conversation with any of the members of the Progressive party in Clearfield county, to convince the Doubting Thomases that there has been no serious defection in the ranks of the Progressive party in this county. In fact, it is evident that, since the beginning of the late campaign in this county, there are hundreds of voters who have become disgusted with the tactics employed by the leaders of the two old political parties in their lust for office. The shameful use of money to secure nominations and elections in that campaign was the climax of long years of political corruption in Clearfield county.

No honest man can support a party that is ruled by boodle and booze. No true patriot can endorse the course pursued by the leaders of the two old political parties in this county in their efforts to secure the county offices. So long as those old parties are controlled by men who place plunder of official position before honest government so long will the will of the people be ignored and their rights abused. It is only through the Progressive party—the party of moral uplift and industrial and social justice—that the people hope to overthrow the despots and regain their control of government in county, state and nation.

THE CLEARFIELD HOSPITAL.

The Clearfield hospital is an institution which merits the liberal support of the people of this county. In the course of a year hundreds of persons are treated for all kinds of diseases and ailments, being given care and attention such as it is impossible for them to receive at their homes, while scores of persons have been admitted to the surgical ward, where broken bones and other injuries have been repaired and cured. No one is turned away from the hospital, and all patients, whether they are rich or poor, receive the same careful and skillful treatment.

To conduct a hospital such as that in Clearfield is expensive. The state appropriates a comparatively small amount of money for the maintenance of the Clearfield hospital—about one-half as much as could be given to the institution without prejudice to other institutions in other places. The Clearfield public has contributed considerable money to the upkeep of the hospital in past years. But the demands made upon the hospital increase year by year, and the state appropriation and public contributions combined are not sufficient to meet the cost of maintaining the institution.

No citizen of Clearfield county who has in mind the great amount of good that is done day by day by the hospital can study the situation at the hospital with indifference. The increased expenditures for the relief of the sick and injured demand that there should be an increase in the revenues of the hospital. A number of persons have contributed quite liberally to the support of the hospital, and many others should do so, in order that the beneficial work being performed there shall not be hampered in the least. The hospital is an institution which should be regarded as the most important of Clearfield's institutions, worthy of liberal support.

NOBEL PEACE PRIZE TO SENATOR ROOT

Awarded $40,000 in Gold For Efforts in 1912.

Christiania, Norway, Dec. 11.—The Nobel peace prize for 1912 was conferred on Senator Elihu Root of New York and that for 1913 on Senator Henri La Fontaine of Brussels, Belgium, who was formerly president of the permanent international peace bureau of Berne, Switzerland.

Senator Root in 1910 was made a permanent member of the permanent court of arbitration at The Hague, succeeding as permanent representative of the United States the late Chief Justice Fuller. In the same year he was made president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

Alfred B. Nobel, the Swedish scientist who invented dynamite, left $9,000,000 to found a fund the interest of which was to be given annually to five persons who had done the most "for the good of humanity." The prizes are distributed to the persons who have made the most important discovery or invention in the domain of physics; the most important discovery in medicine or physiology; who has made in literature "the most excellent work of an idealistic tendency," and to the person who "has worked most or best for the fraternization of nations and the abolishment or reduction of standing armies, and the calling in and propagating of peace congresses." This last, known as the peace prize, is awarded by a committee of five persons elected by the Norwegian Storting. Each prize amounts to about $40,000.

Child Labor Law in Pittsburgh. Pittsburgh, Dec. 11.—Vigorous enforcement of the child labor law enacted by the late legislature was continued throughout the city. Proprietors of restaurants, hotels, clubs and department stores were notified that all women under twenty-one years must cease work at 9 o'clock at night and the provisions relating to boys must be followed closely.

The Society For the Prevention of Useless Giving is more active this Christmas than ever before. It is the endeavor of the organization to stop the giving of costly gifts to acquaintances because one thinks he or she ought to be remembered or because one fears that the acquaintance is going to send a gift in spite of the fact that the two persons are scarcely known to each other. Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of the late financier, is one of the leading members of the Spug organization and lends valuable aid. The Spugs will have a Christmas tree all their own for little children when Santa Claus would not otherwise visit this Christmas.

BEGIN TESTIMONY IN SCHMIDT TRIAL

Priest Is Charged With Brutal Murder of Pretty Girl.

New York, Dec. 11.—Momentarily expecting an outbreak on the part of the Rev. Hans Schmidt, Assistant District Attorney Delehanty demanded from the jury a verdict of murder in the first degree against the priest slayer of Anna Ammiller. Mr. Delehanty opened the case for the state and recited the facts that led up to the murder and declared that Schmidt is shamming insanity and that the alienists for the state will prove that he was of sound mind and knew what he was doing when he cut the body of the girl he said he married into pieces in a flat last September.

The alienists for both the prosecution and the defense were in court and watched every movement the priest made.

The trial has attracted much public interest, and hundreds, including many women, struggled for places of advantage outside of the courtroom to get in when the doors were opened. So long as there are accommodations the public is admitted, but none are permitted to stand up.

At the conclusion of Mr. Delehanty's address, which occupied twenty minutes, witnesses were called to tell of the finding of the parts of the body in the Hudson river at Edgewater. It is expected that the trial will last six days.

Salaries Cut in Philippines. Manila, Dec. 11.—Many officials of the Philippine government threatened to hand in their resignations in consequence of the passage by the assembly of an appropriation bill by which economies amounting to $2,000,000 in the government's expenditure are effected, chiefly by the reduction of salaries.

PROHIBITIONISTS AT THE CAPITAL

Men and Women Wage Nation Wide War on Drink.

THE MEASURE IN CONGRESS

Demonstration by Anti-saloon League and W. C. T. U. In Favor of Constitutional Amendment—Received at Capitol Steps by Senator Sheppard and Representative Hobson.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Under the dome of the capitol 2,000 men and women, representing the Anti-saloon League of America and the Woman's Christian Temperance union, assembled for a demonstration against the liquor traffic. In two bodies the men and women marched from the downtown section of the city to the east front of the capitol. Each bore petitions demanding national prohibition by constitutional amendment.

On the steps of the capitol the petitions were received by Representative Richmond Pearson Hobson of Alabama, author of such a proposed amendment, and by Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas. The legislators also received from a special committee of the anti-liquor forces a copy of another resolution suggested to prohibit forever the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors except for sacramental and medicinal purposes.

In their march to the capitol the Anti-saloon league forces were led by Brigadier General Aaron S. Daggett, U. S. A., retired. Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens of Maine, president general of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, marshaled the women, who waved banners as they paraded down Pennsylvania avenue.

After the presentation of petitions, which were filed in the senate and house, prohibition speeches were made. Ernest H. Cherrington of Westville, O., ex-Governor M. B. Patterson of Tennessee; Mrs. Ella A. Boole of Brooklyn, president of the New York state W. C. T. U., and Mrs. Mary Harris ARMOR of Georgia were the speakers.

RIO GRANDE FIRE A FAKE.

Steamer at Brunswick—Captain Denies Outbreak.

Brunswick, Ga., Dec. 11.—The Malloy line steamship Rio Grande arrived from New York. The captain declared that there was no trouble on the trip down, that there was no fire, nor did those on the vessel know of any unusual happening at sea.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Suspicion that "fake" wireless messages may have been sent out by some amateur, reporting disaster on the steamer Rio Grande, has led the bureau of navigation of the department of commerce to start an investigation. The penalty is fine or imprisonment or both. The messages were received at New York and Norfolk on Sunday night, telling of fire aboard the "Ringrande" and saying that 197 passengers had been taken off the vessel and afterward returned.

JAMES T. McDERMOTT.

Illinois Representative Convicted by House of Acts Of "Grave Impropriety."

© 1913, by American Press Association.

Despite the protests of many members the house has "sidetracked" the report submitted by its lobby investigating committee. The mildness of the report caused considerable comment in Washington, especially in view of the president's, one-time characterization of it as the "finisious lobby." The report is to the effect that the lobbyists have at times exerted an offensive influence about the capitol and that Representative James T. McDermott, Democrat, of Illinois had been guilty of acts of grave impropriety. The whole affair has been sent to the judiciary committee.

THE HUFF CASE IS NOW ON

Alleged Slayer of His Wife
Faces a Jury

WILL BE WELL DEFENDED.

Tony Partridge Acquitted of Charge of Selling to Minors—Grand Jury Ignores the Bill in Which Harry Coulter Was Charged With Causing Fire to Spread to Neighbor's Lands.

The case against Henry Hilliard, charged with having robbed the son of a miner at Clover Run of about $35, which the lad was taking to his home, occupied the time of the court Wednesday afternoon and this morning. The jury retired after hearing time. Hilliard was accused of having knocked the boy down and robbing him on the highway.

A verdict of not guilty was rendered in the Hilliard case this afternoon.

The jury in the case of the commonwealth vs. Tony Partridge, charged with selling liquor to minors, returned a verdict of not guilty.

The grand jury ignored the bill in the case of the commonwealth against Harry Coulter, charged with maliciously permitting fire from his home in Girard township to spread to the farm of James Leonard, a neighbor. It was expected that this case would be tried, as it was the desire of the state forestry commission to have a court ruling on the issue of this character.

The Huff case was taken up this afternoon, the rest of the afternoon session being taken up with the selection of a jury. Huff is charged with killing his wife at Penfield, leaving the woman at the home of Lelloy Smith, where she was employed.

The commonwealth is represented in this case by District Attorney Kelley, and Attorneys Cole and Gleason. Huff will be defended by Attorneys Lawright and Woodward. A large number of witnesses from Penfield and other towns along the LowGrade railroad are here to testify.

At this writing only one juror had been accepted.

HOSPITAL NEWS

John Triebly, an engineer on the New York Central, fell from his engine in the yards in this place Tuesday afternoon and received severe injuries to his head. He was taken to the hospital, where he is getting along very well.

James Snyder, of Curwensville who was in the hospital suffering from blood poison, died at 1:30 o'clock this morning. He was aged 43 years and was a single man.

Lewis Greaves died at the hospital last night of cancer. He was 58 years old and unmarried. Mr. Greaves was a traveling mechanic, a repairer of intricate and delicate machines, and was a resident of Lock Haven, but had been on a visit to Clearfield, when he was taken ill and was removed to the hospital. Lock Haven friends have taken charge of the body and will ship it to that town.

C. H. S. News.

The Junior class will hold a class party this evening at the High school building.

The Literary society of C. H. S. will render a literary program to-morrow afternoon.

Paroles Recommended.

Among the paroles recommended to the board of pardons by the inspectors of the Western penitentiary are the following: Genaro Mezzanoti, Jefferson county, murder second degree; Harry Schaeffer, Indiana; murder second degree; Mike Boluski, Indiana manslaughter.

Have you seen the new case of Bath Room fixtures at William Powell's Hardware store.

Serviceable Manicure Sets, Safety Razors, Pocket Knives, Scissors, etc., Chaffing Dishes, Electric Irons and Percolators have just been received at William Powell's Store on Second street, Dec. 11.

ANOTHER CHILD BITTEN

Quarantine Cannot be Established Too Quickly Here.

On Monday another child was bitten by a dog, but whether the dog was mad or not has not been ascertained. A child in Alonzo Baumgartner's family on the West Side was attacked by a dog and the little one's eye was badly lacerated.

Earl Gearhart states that this paper was misinformed when it reported that he was opposed to the killing of his dog, which bit him and his little son, and that Mr. Gearhart does not believe that such a disease as rabies exists. Mr. Gearhart says he has been under the care of a physician ever since he was bitten, and that the wounds of both himself and his son have been properly treated.

COMMENDABLE ACTION

Landlord Casey Cares For Family of Daniel River.

Since the unfortunate affair in his hotel by which Daniel River lost his life, Landlord Tom Casey has proven himself worthy of commendation. Mr. Casey has practically taken charge of the River family, providing them with money and other necessities of life.

Mr. Casey has assured Mrs. River that he will not permit her to suffer as a result of the accident, in which her husband met his death, and those who know Mr. Casey feel confident that he will make his words good, although the River family have no legal claim upon him.

INCREASING CAPACITY

Big Boiler Being Placed in the Steam Plant.

A number of employees of the Keeler Boiler company, of Williamsport, have been at work for some time placing in position a new boiler at the steam plant in Clearfield. This boiler is of 500 horse power and when in operation will greatly increase the power of the steam plant. A smoke stack 100 feet high and five feet in diameter will be erected in connection with this big boiler and is expected that the new boiler will be in position by the first of the coming year.

INDIANA Y. M. C. A.

New $50,000 Building Dedicated This Afternoon.

The new $50,000 building of the Indiana, Pa. Y. M. C. A. was dedicated this afternoon. Russell H. Conwell, the noted preacher and orator, was the chief figure at the ceremonies. Tuesday evening the building was open for inspection of charter members and Wednesday evening the general public was admitted. Wednesday evening the new secretary, H. F. Beck, late of the Clearfield Y. M. C. A. was installed and given a reception at which the directors acted as ushers.

RECEIVED A PORKER

Prothonotary Moore Just Falls Into Good Luck.

Wednesday Prothonotary John H. Moore received from a friend in Virginia a porker, a nice fat porker, butchered and all ready for roast, boiling or any other kind of cooking.

Mr. Moore was greatly pleased over this munificent gift, especially as Christmas is fast approaching and neither he nor Clerk Ralston secured any venison this year. But the genial prothonotary was still further convinced that blessings do not always come singly when he opened the hog's carcass and discovered two big rolls of rich, yellow butter safely deposited in its interior department.

A Beautiful Play of Modern Times.

"A Girl of the Underworld" which plays at the opera house Friday night is without doubt the greatest show of its kind ever written. If you want an evening of realistic pleasure see this show. Laughter and tears are but a few minutes apart. As Shakespeare said: "A man who might laugh with sadness is a deed happy." This play in all respects is a show of modern times. It tells a beautiful story which really happened. In fact each incident depicted in this piece was taken from real life. Taking it all in all "A Girl of the Underworld" is a two dollar show now playing at popular prices and it would be advisable to secure your tickets in advance as from present indications, standing room will be at a premium. Seats now selling.

FIND NEW CLEWS TO MISSING GIRL

Coney Island Searched From One End to Other.

NURSE AIDS DETECTIVES.

Tells of Talking to Girl Answering Description of Heiress—Clothes Tally With Those Worn by Miss McCann—Detectives Confident That Search Will Not Be In Vain.

New York, Dec. 11.—With new clues developing almost every hour, Detectives Brierton and States and their aids—officials and otherwise—felt confident that they would be able to restore the missing Jessie McCann to her anxious family. The search lay along the Coney Island-Brighton Beach coast between Sea Gate and the Manhattan Beach hotel.

The detectives were confident now that the woman who approached Miss Lauretta Dore, nurse for Mrs. Praeger, wife of the Shelbourne hotel manager at Ocean Parkway and the Concourse, last Thursday afternoon was Miss McCann. They also felt confident that the object of their search also talked with the matron in charge of the Brighton Beach comfort station for women on Friday.

The nurse repeated her story in detail to the detectives, and a comparison showed that the description of the girl who accosted her on the street tallied exactly with that which the McCanns have furnished of their missing daughter.

"I was pushing the baby carriage along the Concourse when the girl hailed me from behind," said the nurse. "She crossed over from the other side of the street and somewhat excitedly informed me that a strange man was following her. She asked if she might walk with me until the man had left the vicinity. I told her she might, of course. She pointed the man out to me. He was well dressed, wore sideburns and appeared to be about forty years of age. He was then standing on the opposite side of the street. 'After a bit he sauntered on down the street, but the girl continued to walk with me. She told me that she was afflicted with a nervous disorder and that the man had frightened her. After a bit she confided to me that she had only 30 cents left. She went away without revealing her identity.'"

The nurse remembered that the girl who accosted her wore two plumes in her hat, one black and the other orange colored. Mrs. McCann said that her daughter had such a hat adornment when she left home.

NEXT BIG FIGHT MAY OCCUR AT OJINAGA

Mexican Federals Await Villa's Forces at That Place.

Juarez, Mex., Dec. 11.—Events indicated that Ojinaga, sometimes called Presidio del Norte, the small Mexican village on the border opposite Presidio, Tex., would be the scene of the next important move in the Mexican revolution. Rebel leaders were more than ever convinced that Ojinaga, where the federal troops have concentrated, cannot be ignored by General Francisco Villa. Within the town are practically all the federal troops of the north, with most of their important generals. Their retreat thither avowedly was to obtain money and provisions because in the interior they had been without pay and were on the verge of famine. Reprovisioned and provided with money, the federals would be in a position to renew hostilities.

Should he determine to attack the federals in force General Villa, now at Chihuahua city, would have to check temporarily his advance southward toward Torreon, but it would be in line with his plan to leave only rebel territory behind him in his southward march. The rebel forces about Ojinaga are greatly in excess of the number at first reported. It is said that the 3,000 troops which Villa sent south of Juarez, about ten days ago, have turned eastward, and are now on the road to Ojinaga.

A mutiny of the federals is relied upon by the rebels, as was shown by their calling across the river to the American side that they would desert if attacked.

The Cause.

"Why the divorce? Couldn't he support her in the style to which she was accustomed?"

"Yes, but then she wanted something altogether better than that."—Washington Herald.

ELECTED OFFICERS

No. 1 Fire Company Chooses Heads of Departments.

Wednesday evening the members of No. 1 fire company met in their rooms and proceeded to the election of officers for the ensuing year, with the following result:

Foreman—A. P. Spangler.
First Assistant Foreman—J. B. Smith.

Second Assistant Foreman—W. J. Sackett.

Secretary—F. B. Smith.

Treasurer—Walter Welch.

Marshal—O. G. Fontenay.

Steward—W. Banks Holmes.

This makes the thirty-first time Mr. Holmes has been chosen steward of this company, and his election last night was made by a rising vote. Banks feels highly honored by being made the steward of such a lively and efficient set of fire fighters as are found in old No. 1.

Other elections:

Board of Directors—J. M. Urey, W. E. Welch and Ward Logan.

Representatives to Department—

E. W. Hess, George Kittleberger, W. J. Sackett and William Thorne.

Representative to relief association—

Gus Kupper, L. C. Meise, and Ward Logan.

After the election the members repaired to the hall, where they partook of a sumptuous feast prepared by J. F. Smith. The firemen enjoyed the good things on the table and the flow of wit and humor, which were interspersed with the meal.

AT U. B. CHURCH

Last Night's Service Was of Great Interest.

The service at the U. B. church last night was one of great interest. Rev. College preached a fine sermon on the subject "Hounds and other dogs." He likened the Christian being hounded by Satan's workers, to the reindeer as they were hounded years ago by dogs—their great refuge the water, our great refuge, the arms of God. The subject for tonight is, "Like the world—Like God" or the two like nesses. Come out and hear Rev. College, only two more nights as Friday night will be the last service. The subject for Friday night will be "The Feast of Belshazzar" or the Hand Writing on the Wall.

Christmas Stories.

There are two good Christmas stories in next Sunday's Philadelphia PRESS. One is by Roy Norton, entitled "And by These Deeds" and another is by Abbie F. Brown, called "An Unheralded Tradition." Besides these stories there is another of Herbert Kaufman's advertising tales, "The Pride of the Tuxedos," a classic in commercial fiction. These are a few of next Sunday's features.

Lightning Cures.

Some have had physical reasons to rejoice that they had been struck by lightning. De Quatrefages mentions the case of a telegraph employee at Strassburg who was struck senseless and remained paralyzed until the next day, but thereafter enjoyed better health than ever before. In Martinique a M. Ronde was deprived by lightning of the use of his limbs for three hours, but, having previously been a man of weak health, was much stronger from that time on. Several authors refer to cases in which rheumatism was cured by lightning. And in this respect also trees seem to be as men. Arago saw a poplar, one of an avenue of 1,500 near Tours, which, having been struck, developed such vigor that its trunk soon far surpassed in dimensions those of all its neighbors.

Why the Cook Left.

There was a dead silence in the kitchen, and the mistress felt that the work was not progressing as it should. She walked quietly along the passage and found the cook reading a novelette. "Why are you wasting your time like this? What is this rubbish that keeps you from your work?" demanded the mistress. Her eyes fell on the title of the novelette. It was called "Married to the Master."—Manchester Guardian

A Wicked Prisoner.

A perfectly formed hard shell crab about the size of the end of a person's thumb was found in an oyster shell. The crab had evidently been swallowed by the oyster, but presumably the crab proved too much for the oyster, as there was no oyster in the shell when it was opened.

It is time to be thinking about those Xmas photos. Have the McDevot Studio make them for you. Nov. 21—24.

WHITMAN AFTER MEN HIGHER UP

New Indictments In Graft Cases Expected at Any Time.

HIGH OFFICIAL SUSPECTED

District Attorney Insists on Prompt Action in John Doe Proceedings. Contractor Was Expected to Appear Before Grand Jury and Repeat Story That He Paid "Men of Influence."

New York, Dec. 11.—Determined on prompt action, District Attorney Whitman sought from the grand jury indictments based on the sensational testimony given at the John Doe proceedings before Chief Magistrate McAdoo. It was intimated that an official high in the Democratic party will be indicted.

John M. Murphy, a Bronx contractor, who is not related to Charles F. Murphy, leader of the Democratic party in this city, expected to be called to repeat to the grand jury the statement he made in the John Doe proceedings that he paid James E. Gaffney and the late Joseph D. Carroll, two powers in the Democratic party, $3,000 each because they were "men of influence."

Mr. Murphy said he entered into an oral partnership with Mr. Gaffney and Mr. Carroll and that they never did anything that he could recollect for the firm, but that he expected they would "help him" with C. Gordon Reel, formerly state superintendent of highways.

The Hassett Case.

Before Mr. Whitman laid this and other matters before the grand jury he concluded his case against Thomas Hassett, to whom a Poughkeepsie contractor said he paid $1,500 in cash for expediting the approval of a claim of his against the state for contract work. Immediately after the Hassett case the name of George M. Palmer, chairman of the Democratic state committee, was brought to the attention of the grand jury.

BEILIS' ACQUITTAL STANDS.

Time Limit For Appeal From Verdict Has Expired.

Kiev, Russia, Dec. 11.—The time limit expired for an appeal against the verdict of acquittal in the recent sensational trial of Mendel Beilis, who was charged with murdering the boy Andrew Yashinsky for purposes of "blood ritual."

The law allows a period of fifteen days in which to appeal after the promulgation of the verdict, and as the public prosecutor did not take advantage of this the judgment became absolute automatically.

People Oppose Ferdinand.

Sofia, Dec. 11.—Revised returns of the general election in Bulgaria show that the government has been defeated, winning only 95 seats to 109 for the opposition.

He Knew the Moment.

The last time Augustus Thomas, the playwright, went to a dinner of the Hoboken Chowder club noted for its hospitality more than its views on national questions, he was assigned to the rear of the speakers' list to "bring up the retreat from Moscow," as he put it. One of the speakers made a stab at politics, and the chairman turned to Thomas.

"I'm going to call on you next," he whispered hoarsely. "Don't do it," begged Thomas. "I will," insisted the chairman. "It is the proper zoological moment!"—New York Tribune.

DEATHS OF A DAY.

Peter K. Wilson, eighty-nine, for almost fifty years engaged in the lace importing business in New York, is dead.

Frank S. Crane, who for twenty years had been a member of the Springfield (Mass.) assessors, is dead.

Arthur M. Wilson, president of the New England Grocers' association for the past ten years, died at Wilson's Station, Conn.

John Russell, president of the George W. Russell company, building contractors, died at New York. He was eighty-two years old.

Henry Clinton Atwood, president of the Williamsville Manufacturing company, cotton manufacturers, died in Danielson, Conn., aged fifty-seven.

Dr. Henry Wishard, the oldest physician in Indianapolis, is dead, aged ninety-seven. Dr. Wishard served throughout the civil war as a volunteer surgeon.

Burt W. Gifford, seventy-six, clerk of the town of Watertown for forty years, is dead, aged seventy-six. He succeeded his father, who was town clerk for twenty years.

Mrs. Caroline Palmer Farnsworth, eighty-seven, died in Glen Ridge, N. J. Mrs. Farnsworth spent fifty years in Turkey as a missionary, working under the American-Congregational board of foreign missions. Professor Charles F. Farnsworth of Columbia is her son.

STATE GRANGE

Proceedings of Interest at the Reading Meetings.

Reading, Dec. 11.—At Wednesday morning's session, resolutions and reports were presented. At 1:30 P. M. addresses were made by the visitors and routine matters transacted. The exemplification of the NRD degree will take place at 7:30. At 8:30 o'clock the sixth degree will be conferred on the candidates.

The reports of the special committees and the memorial services for deceased members took up the entire morning session today. A special order for biennial election was held this afternoon. Several members were named for vacancies in the executive committee. They will be elected for three years. The election of officers will not be held this year. This evening the reports of sellers and the receiving of reports from the committees will occupy the time.

The completion of official business and the closing of the convention will be held Friday at 9 A. M., when nearly all of the 2000 visitors will be assembled.

A feature of the convention is the fact that half of the visitors are women. Some have accompanied their husbands here as spectators and others have been appointed delegates, the ruling of the grange allowing women to serve in that capacity.

BIRD SLAUGHTER

Strict Enforcement of the Law is Demanded.

The horrors of vivisection and the cruelty of the ruthless slaughter of birds and game animals, were vividly portrayed in Washington Monday, by speakers at the opening sessions of the annual convention of the International Anti-Vivisection and Animal Protection society. Speakers declared that vivisection as now practiced even in the most advanced laboratories of rich philanthropic institutions is a "blot on twentieth century civilization." Special mention was made of the proceedings brought by members of the anti-vivisection society of Philadelphia. Secretary of State Bryan, Senators Gallinger and Myers, and prominent leaders of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and the Audubon society were scheduled to speak during the three days convention. It was announced today that resolutions will be put through demanding federal legislation prohibiting vivisection and making game laws more strict.

POOR TRAIN SERVICE ON IRVONA BRANCH

Almost Three Hours Required to Travel 35 Miles.

Up to this time the New York Central railroad has not improved its passenger service on the Clearfield and Southern branch, although requested to do so by the State Public Utilities commission. The residents of this county who are forced to travel over the line between here and Irvona are somewhat wroth over the fact that they are put to great inconvenience when they wish to transact business at the county seat, while Clearfield citizens find it a difficult matter to reach Irvona and vicinity under the present schedule of trains.

To give the public some idea of what a trip to Irvona from Clearfield involves we give the following facts: The train which leaves Clearfield at 1:50 in the afternoon reaches Irvona at 7:19, thus requiring almost three hours to travel less than 35 miles. The return trip cannot be made in one day. The only service is a mixed train, hauling freight and passengers the accommodation car being lighted with kerosene lamps as in the days of early railroading.

The county officials and the public in general find the service between the two points inadequate and efforts will be made to have this discrimination against both the county seat and Irvona corrected by the Public Utilities commission. It is alleged that there is sufficient passenger traffic between the two points to warrant the New York Central in placing a regular passenger train on the line with a schedule which will permit travelers to reach their destination within a reasonable time.

COMING EVENTS.

County Institute, Dec. 15-19.
Reception to new secretary of Y. M. C. A. Dec. 9, at 8 P. M.

Good evening! Don't expect too much on Christmas morning; the high cost of living has cut out many of the frills of that glad season.

PURE BLUFF.

Statements of the mouthpieces of the old political parties that the Progressive party is falling to pieces have no other effect upon the rank and file of that party than to cause them to stand more firmly by the principles which rallied to their support four million voters in the 1912 campaign. These statements are founded on falsehood and nobody knows this better than do the gangsters who are seeking to convince the people that the third party is disintegrating.

It needs but a brief conversation with any of the members of the Progressive party in Clearfield county, to convince the Doubting Thomases that there has been no serious defection in the ranks of the Progressive party in this county. In fact, it is evident that, since the beginning of the late campaign in this county, there are hundreds of voters who have become disgusted with the tactics employed by the leaders of the two old political parties in their lust for office. The shameful use of money to secure nominations and elections in that campaign was the climax of long years of political corruption in Clearfield county.

No honest man can support a party that is ruled by boodle and booze. No true patriot can endorse the course pursued by the leaders of the two old political parties in this county in their efforts to secure the county offices. So long as those old parties are controlled by men who place plunder of official position before honest government so long will the will of the people be ignored and their rights abused. It is only through the Progressive party—the party of moral uplift and industrial and social justice—that the people hope to overthrow the despots and regain their control of government in county, state and nation.

THE CLEARFIELD HOSPITAL.

The Clearfield hospital is an institution which merits the liberal support of the people of this county. In the course of a year hundreds of persons are treated for all kinds of diseases and ailments, being given care and attention such as it is impossible for them to receive at their homes, while scores of persons have been admitted to the surgical ward, where broken bones and other injuries have been repaired and cured. No one is turned away from the hospital, and all patients, whether they are rich or poor, receive the same careful and skillful treatment.

To conduct a hospital such as that in Clearfield is expensive. The state appropriates a comparatively small amount of money for the maintenance of the Clearfield hospital—about one-half as much as could be given to the institution without prejudice to other institutions in other places. The Clearfield public has contributed considerable money to the upkeep of the hospital in past years. But the demands made upon the hospital increase year by year, and the state appropriation and public contributions combined are not sufficient to meet the cost of maintaining the institution.

No citizen of Clearfield county who has in mind the great amount of good that is done day by day by the hospital can study the situation at the hospital with indifference. The increased expenditures for the relief of the sick and injured demand that there should be an increase in the revenues of the hospital. A number of persons have contributed quite liberally to the support of the hospital, and many others should do so, in order that the beneficial work being performed there shall not be hampered in the least. The hospital is an institution which should be regarded as the most important of Clearfield's institutions, worthy of liberal support.

NOBEL PEACE PRIZE TO SENATOR ROOT

Awarded $40,000 in Gold For Efforts in 1912.

Christiania, Norway, Dec. 11.—The Nobel peace prize for 1912 was conferred on Senator Elihu Root of New York and that for 1913 on Senator Henri La Fontaine of Brussels, Belgium, who was formerly president of the permanent international peace bureau of Berne, Switzerland.

Senator Root in 1910 was made a permanent member of the permanent court of arbitration at The Hague, succeeding as permanent representative of the United States the late Chief Justice Fuller. In the same year he was made president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

Alfred B. Nobel, the Swedish scientist who invented dynamite, left $9,000,000 to found a fund the interest of which was to be given annually to five persons who had done the most "for the good of humanity." The prizes are distributed to the persons who have made the most important discovery or invention in the domain of physics; the most important discovery in medicine or physiology; who has made in literature "the most excellent work of an idealistic tendency," and to the person who "has worked most or best for the fraternization of nations and the abolishment or reduction of standing armies, and the calling in and propagating of peace congresses." This last, known as the peace prize, is awarded by a committee of five persons elected by the Norwegian Storting. Each prize amounts to about $40,000.

Child Labor Law in Pittsburgh. Pittsburgh, Dec. 11.—Vigorous enforcement of the child labor law enacted by the late legislature was continued throughout the city. Proprietors of restaurants, hotels, clubs and department stores were notified that all women under twenty-one years must cease work at 9 o'clock at night and the provisions relating to boys must be followed closely.

MISS ANNE MORGAN.

Spug Leader, Who Seeks To Prevent Useless Giving And Aid the Unfortunate.

The Society For the Prevention of Useless Giving is more active this Christmas than ever before. It is the endeavor of the organization to stop the giving of costly gifts to acquaintances because one thinks he or she ought to be remembered or because one fears that the acquaintance is going to send a gift in spite of the fact that the two persons are scarcely known to each other. Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of the late financier, is one of the leading members of the Spug organization and lends valuable aid. The Spugs will have a Christmas tree all their own for little children when Santa Claus would not otherwise visit this Christmas.

BEGIN TESTIMONY IN SCHMIDT TRIAL

Priest Is Charged With Brutal Murder of Pretty Girl.

New York, Dec. 11.—Momentarily expecting an outbreak on the part of the Rev. Hans Schmidt, Assistant District Attorney Delehanty demanded from the jury a verdict of murder in the first degree against the priest slayer of Anna Ammiller. Mr. Delehanty opened the case for the state and recited the facts that led up to the murder and declared that Schmidt is shamming insanity and that the alienists for the state will prove that he was of sound mind and knew what he was doing when he cut the body of the girl he said he married into pieces in a flat last September.

The alienists for both the prosecution and the defense were in court and watched every movement the priest made. The trial has attracted much public interest, and hundreds, including many women, struggled for places of advantage outside of the courtroom to get in when the doors were opened. So long as there are accommodations the public is admitted, but none are permitted to stand up.

At the conclusion of Mr. Delehanty's address, which occupied twenty minutes, witnesses were called to tell of the finding of the parts of the body in the Hudson river at Edgewater. It is expected that the trial will last six days.

Salaries Cut in Philippines. Manila, Dec. 11.—Many officials of the Philippine government threatened to hand in their resignations in consequence of the passage by the assembly of an appropriation bill by which economies amounting to $2,000,000 in the government's expenditure are effected, chiefly by the reduction of salaries.

PROHIBITIONISTS AT THE CAPITAL

Men and Women Wage Nation Wide War on Drink.

THE MEASURE IN CONGRESS

Demonstration by Anti-saloon League and W. C. T. U. In Favor of Constitutional Amendment—Received at Capitol Steps by Senator Sheppard and Representative Hobson.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Under the dome of the capitol 2,000 men and women, representing the Anti-saloon League of America and the Woman's Christian Temperance union, assembled for a demonstration against the liquor traffic. In two bodies the men and women marched from the downtown section of the city to the east front of the capitol. Each bore petitions demanding national prohibition by constitutional amendment.

On the steps of the capitol the petitions were received by Representative Richmond Pearson Hobson of Alabama, author of such a proposed amendment, and by Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas. The legislators also received from a special committee of the anti-liquor forces a copy of another resolution suggested to prohibit forever the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors except for sacramental and medicinal purposes.

In their march to the capitol the Anti-saloon league forces were led by Brigadier General Aaron S. Daggett, U. S. A., retired. Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens of Maine, president general of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, marshaled the women, who waved banners as they paraded down Pennsylvania avenue.

After the presentation of petitions, which were filed in the senate and house, prohibition speeches were made. Ernest H. Cherrington of Westville, O., ex-Governor M. B. Patterson of Tennessee; Mrs. Ella A. Boole of Brooklyn, president of the New York state W. C. T. U., and Mrs. Mary Harris ARMOR of Georgia were the speakers.

RIO GRANDE FIRE A FAKE.

Steamer at Brunswick—Captain Denies Outbreak.

Brunswick, Ga., Dec. 11.—The Malloy line steamship Rio Grande arrived from New York. The captain declared that there was no trouble on the trip down, that there was no fire, nor did those on the vessel know of any unusual happening at sea.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Suspicion that "fake" wireless messages may have been sent out by some amateur, reporting disaster on the steamer Rio Grande, has led the bureau of navigation of the department of commerce to start an investigation. The penalty is fine or imprisonment or both. The messages were received at New York and Norfolk on Sunday night, telling of fire aboard the "Ringrande" and saying that 197 passengers had been taken off the vessel and afterward returned.

JAMES T. McDERMOTT.

Illinois Representative Convicted by House of Acts Of "Grave Impropriety."

© 1913, by American Press Association.

Despite the protests of many members the house has "sidetracked" the report submitted by its lobby investigating committee. The mildness of the report caused considerable comment in Washington, especially in view of the president's, one-time characterization of it as the "finisious lobby." The report is to the effect that the lobbyists have at times exerted an offensive influence about the capitol and that Representative James T. McDermott, Democrat, of Illinois had been guilty of acts of grave impropriety. The whole affair has been sent to the judiciary committee.

BODY SNATCHERS.

Fate of Hare, the Last of His Odiour Tribe in London.

The skeleton of the last of the body snatchers treasured in King's college hospital recalls that there must be Londoners still living who remember Hare, who, with his accomplice, Burke, first substituted murder for resuscitating corpses in order to supply subjects for the dissecting rooms. Burke, whose method of smothering the victims gave his name as a new verb to the language, was hanged on the testimony of his accomplice, for Hare turned queen's evidence and was released.

Forty years or so ago Hare was a well known figure in London streets, for Sergeant Ballantine in his "Life" describes him as one of the most persistent blind beggars on the streets about 1870. Few people recognized the cold blooded murderer in the middle aged stout man clad in a white smock and led about by a dog. His blindness was owed to the fact that on leaving prison Hare found work in some lime kilns. The laborers discovered his history and threw him into a pit of lime. It was a terrible vengeance, for it destroyed his eyesight. And as it is not fifty years since he was a striking figure in London streets some people should recall him.—London Spectator

The Difference.

Marks—What is the difference between lunch and luncheon? Parks—Well, my idea is that "lunch" is masculine and "luncheon" is feminine.—Boston Transcript.
